Message from the Grand Master

Greetings,

I greet you in the name of the Grand Architect of the Universe and pray that all is well with you and your family.

- To the Master Masons, I say "Behold how good and pleasant it is for Brothers to dwell together in unity!"
- To the Sisters of the Order of the Eastern Star, I say "For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship Him!"
- To the Royal Arch Masons, I say "Holiness to the Lord!"
- To the Heroines of Jericho, I say "Fear not Daughters of Zion, behold the King Cometh!"

M.W. Wilbert M. Curtis

- To the Knight Templars, I say "In Hoc Signo Vincas" which means "In this sign you shall conquer!"
- To the Sisters of the Heroines of the Templars Crusade, I say "Continue to lead by The Cross",
- To the Scottish Rite Masons, I say "Spes Mea in Deo Est" which means "My hope is in God"
- To the Ladies of the Golden Circle, I say "Peace and Unity!"
- To all others, I say, "Be blessed".

Wikipedia defines greeting as "an act of communication in which human beings (as well as other animals) intentionally make their presence known to each other, to show attention to, and to suggest a type of relationship (usually cordial) or social status (formal or informal) between individuals or groups of people coming in contact with each other. Greetings sometimes are used just prior to a conversation or to greet in passing, such as on a sidewalk or trail. While greeting customs are highly culture and situation-specific and may change within a culture depending on social status and relationship, they exist in all known human cultures. Greetings can be expressed both audibly and physically, and often involve a combination of the two. This topic excludes military and ceremonial salutes but includes rituals other than gestures. A greeting can also be expressed in written communications, such as letters and emails."

Today we use numerous forms of highly technical communication but we should not lose sight of the importance of a friendly greeting. We need to always take a little time out just to give a warm and friendly greeting. It will set a positive tone and example for others to follow, whether it is at a ceremony, delivering a speech, writing a letter or conversing in simple dialogue. Some greetings may have a long time and lasting effect.

There is one greeting that Past Grand Master Dr. I.H. Clayborn once penned that has caused the entire Prince Hall Masonic world to view our Jurisdiction as the "Country of Texas". Dr. Clayborn was so very proud of Texas that he called it God's chosen land. His greeting was documented in the Grand Lodge Centennial Souvenir Book in 1975 and he often used it as he traveled around the globe. It states:

"I greet you, as Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas and its Jurisdiction; I welcome you to God's chosen land, that part of the United States where He Loved it so much, until He visited the Garden of Eden and flung her luscious fruits all over the rich Rio Grande Valley; likewise, God visited the Sahara Desert and brought portions of hot sand to the westernmost part of our state and to the Amazon, Nile, even the Jordan River, and snaked these through Texas, and the long, big Colorado River, you can cross eleven times between Austin and Bay City, Texas. God loved Texas so much, He brought portions of the ocean waters, one calm and one turbulent, and dropped them in places like Garza – Little Elm, Tawakoni, and the Livingston Reservoir, so we could be reminded of the greatness of God, our Father."

So in our Masonic travels, there is a place for a warm greeting. It is an expression of Brotherly Love, Friendship and the tenants of the entire Masonic Family. Your warm greeting may just have a lasting impact on someone's life. So remember that the next time you greet someone.

I remain...

Fraternally yours,

Wilbert M. Curtis

State Director Michael Simms Sr.

FORTH WORTH - In May of 1999, the Supreme Council, Order of the Knights of Pythagoras program was given permission to start in the great state of Texas by the late Past Grand Master Robert E. Connor Jr.

P.G.M. Connor named the Texas program after the late P.G.M. Thomas H. Routt who also served as Grand Master for the state of Texas and a judge in the Houston area. He also appointed Bro. Jamal Rasheed to serve as the first State Director of the program.

In May of 2014, the program will be celebrating its 15th year under the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas and under M.W.G.M. Wilbert M. Curtis and the current State Director Michael L. Simms Sr. This program for the past 15 years has accomplished the following:

Texas Knights of Pythagoras visits Washington DC's K.O.P. Program

State Director Michael Simms Sr.

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Members of the Texas Knights of Pythagoras, Most Venerable Thomas H. Routt Grand Council consisting of State Director Michael L. Simms Sr. and Assistant State Director Rahsaan Cook traveled to Washington, D.C. to attend the Order of the Knights of Pythagoras' James W. Payne 36th Annual Encampment hosted by the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, Aug. 1 - 3.

The delegation was invited by Grand Director Arnold E. Hudson Sr. and was also greeted by M.W. Grand Master John T. Doles Sr. of the M.W.P.H.G.L. of D.C.

Also attending was Grand Knight

Director Elijah Bazemore from North Carolina as well as other Youth Councils from Virginia and North Carolina.

The trip included visiting Howard University, the Dr. Martin Luther Jr. Memorial, the War Memorial, and the Grand Lodge.

There were excellent workshops given in which S.D. Simms had an opportunity to present two: "Staying in the Driver's Seat (taking responsibility for your life)" and "Decision Making".

The D.C. K.O.P. served as an excellent host and ensured that the Texas delegation felt right at home.

Many thanks to G.D. Hudson, who also traveled to Texas for the K.O.P.'s 2012 Young men with a Purpose Leadership Conference.

The visit proved the importance of the K.O.P. to visit and continue to work together for the benefit of the youth. There are many K.O.P.s throughout the various jurisdictions, but together all are part of the Prince Hall Family's Order of the Knights of Pythagoras Youth Program.

Challenge Fund

Dear District Deputy Grand Masters,

I greet you in the name of the Grand Architect of the Universe, our Heavenly Father. May God continue blessing each of you.

On Saturday, June 22, 2013, during our 138th Annual Grand Communication, I was very proud to present Brother Roosevelt Petry, a member of Ever Ready Lodge No. 506, District 16 and CEO of GP Industrial Contractors, Inc., who made a presentation to Grand Master Wilbert M. Curtis of several donations to the Prince Hall Charitable Foundation totaling $21,509.31.

I then made a challenge to all District Deputy Grand Masters to ask 20 Brothers from their Districts to voluntarily donate $100.00 each before June 1, 2014. With 25 Districts, that would total $2,000.00 per District for a total of $50,000. If the goal is met by June 1, 2014, GP Industrial Contractors, Inc. will donate an additional $25,000.00 to the Prince Hall Charitable Foundation.

I was proud to see so many District Deputies and Brothers stand and accept the challenge and commit to the goal on the floor of the Grand Lodge in front of Grand Master Curtis, his guests, and the Brethren.

Working together, I am confident that we will meet our goal. I am asking each District Deputy to reach out to those 20 Brothers within their Districts. Donations should start as soon as possible and can be turned in to the Prince Hall Charitable Foundation at any time. We are asking all District Deputies to be prepared to make a status report at the Mid-Winter Meeting and a follow up reports on March 1, 2014 and May 1, 2014. Final reports and turning in all of District donations should be completed by June 1, 2014. The Districts are not limited to $2,000.00. If some Brothers are able and willing to contribute more, then your District will be acknowledged for raising more than required.

I am also asking all District Deputies to proudly stand with me at the 139th Grand Communication and we will make our $50,000.00 presentation to G.M. Curtis and to the Prince Hall Charitable Foundation, along with GP Industrial Contractor Inc.'s $25,000.00 contributing donation.

District Deputies please make checks payable to the Prince Hall Charitable Foundation and write Challenge Fund in the memo.

Fraternally,

Clarence B. Douglas Jr.

Headlight Lodge No. 124 hosts Annual Back to School “Give-Away”

Capstone Lodge U.D. puts in Work

Story and photos by: District Staff

CEDAR HILL, Texas - Since receiving a Dispensation from the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas on Sept. 21, 2012, Capstone Lodge U.D. has been exceptionally busy. To ensure the Lodge will receive its Charter during Mid-Winter Session, the Lodge has made some enormous achievements for the community.

In February, the Lodge participated in a clothing drive for the North Ellis County Outreach Center. This center is a faith-based nonprofit agency that provides services to residents in the Ellis County area some of the services offered are utility, food and clothing assistance for the homeless in the county. The Brothers of Capstone cleaned out their closet and donated four barrels of clothing items to the center.

In July, after showing suitable proficiency in the Fellow Craft Degree, six new members were Raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason, becoming members of Capstone.

Additionally during July, the members of Capstone Lodge U.D. made a donation to the Cedar Hill Food Pantry, a non-profit 501(c) (3) agency that has been serving the Cedar Hill community since 1989. It started as a grass-roots organization headquartered in the kitchen of First United Methodist Church. The pantry pledged to provide food and other assistance, without discrimination, to eligible needy families living in the Cedar Hill Independent School District.

August was a very demanding month for the members of Capstone Lodge. Foremost, the members started a can good drive within the community; once those items were collected they were delivered to the North Ellis County Food Pantry for deserving families in need within the community.

In addition, the members formed a "Back-to-School Back Pack Drive". Once all items were collected members delivered the for the first responders of the Cedar Hill Community which included the Police Department, Fire Department and EMT's. The members labored all night until 3 a.m. preparing the meal. At noon, the members set up a buffet style lunch at the Grady Lamb Police Center to serve the guests.

"Back Packs" and school supplies a two-fold purpose: (1) to let the to Highland Elementary School located in Cedar Hill. community know that Prince Hall Freemasonry is alive and operating

During August, several of the members of the Craft made a church visitation to Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. This visitation severed U.D. planned and prepared meals

Metropolitan Lodge No.146 holds Grand Master's Table Lodge

Story and photos by:
P.M. Frederic Milliken (135)

DALLAS – Prince Hall Masons of Metropolitan Lodge No. 146 held a Grand Master's Table Lodge, Sept. 14. The event, presided by Worshipful Master Jerome D. Lacy, was held on top a rooftop overlooking a view of downtown.

The Table Lodge is a tiled Entered Apprentice Masons Lodge. It harkens back to the Mother Grand Lodge of 1717 where one of the reasons for its formation was to hold the Annual Feast. Soon the Grand Master of that time directed that there be installed into the ceremony the old, regular and peculiar toasts and health's of Freemasons. Over time a Table Lodge became a prescribed ceremony with a ritual all its own.

Table Lodges in Colonial America were quite common as many Lodges actually met in taverns and a full course meal became part of "going to Lodge." As the decades passed and a new century began, Table Lodges were continued as a way to promote fellowship, kinship and pride in Masonry. "The Table Lodge had a most unusual pattern. Its entire meeting was conducted around the table, and the helpings of food and beverage were served in such a way they did not interfere with the other concerns of the Lodge. The arrangement of tables resembled a giant horse-shoe, with the Worshipful Master in the East, at the center, and both Wardens in the West, at the opposite ends. The Lodge was opened with an invocation and closed with a song."

"At first, there was an address, followed by many toasts and songs, but as time went by the lecture was omitted and the number of toasts and songs decreased. The final figure that was set for the toasts was seven, and in some Jurisdictions that number is still retained today."

Under its skillful formula, the names of objects in the room were changed. The table was the Trestle Board, the cloth - the standard, the food - the materials, the glasses became cannons, the beverage - powder, the bottles - casks, the napkin a flag, forks were pick-axes, knives were swords, and spoons were trowels. To fill the glass was to "charge" it, and to drink it was to "fire". (1)

Today a Table Lodge has its own set of rituals, with its own particular opening and closing ritual as well as a seven course meal with seven toasts, one after each course.

The ritual of The Ceremony of the Seven Toasts is as follows: Right hand to arms. (The right hand touches the glass).

Ready. (The glass is raised breast high, aim extended forward).

Aim. (The glass is brought to the lips).

Fire, Good Fire, Fire All. (All drink).

Present Arms. (The glass is brought to the second position in unison with the Worshipful Master, then the glass is brought to the left breast, then to the right breast, then again to the second position so that the movement makes a triangle. This triangle is made three times: then the glass is brought to the table in three moves - it is first carried a little to the left, then to the right and finally forcibly in unison to the table).

ALL Vivat, Vivat, Vivat. (Right arm thrust upward with each Vivat). Advance swords. (Knife is raised breast high, arms extended forward).

Poise swords. (Knife blade is elevated slightly, about 45°)

Salute with swords. (Knife handle is brought to within a few inches of the chin with the blade elevated about 45°)

Swords at rest. (Knife handles are carried in unison forcibly to the table - preferably in a flat position to prevent table damage).

The Battery, three times three. (Done)

ALL Vivat, Vivat, Vivat. (Right arm thrust upward with each Vivat). (2)

Wor. Jerome D. Lacy led us in all the toasts except the one to himself and other Worshipful Masters. The toasts were as follows: To the -

1) President of the United States of America

2) Most Worshipful Grand Master and the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge

3) The Worshipful Master and all sitting Masters

4) The Wardens and all sitting Wardens

5) Past Masters

6) Other Officers and visiting Brethren

7) To all Masons where-so-ever spread over the face of the globe

A great meal was had by all. The Table Lodge closed with all Brethren forming the Mystic Chain (arms crossed in front and clasped to the Brother to your right and left) and singing the ancient song written by Scottish Poet Laureate Brother Robert Burns in 1788— Auld Lang Syne.

Should old acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind
Should all acquaintance be forgot
And auld lang syne
For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll take a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne

19th Masonic District hosts Workshop to set all Lodges on the Level

G.L. Ivory Johnson Jr. talks about leadership at the start of the 19th Masonic District's Master Mason Workshop, Oct. 19.

Story and photos by:
G.E. Burrell Parmer (1)

SAN ANTONIO – “Reclaiming Masons in Masonry and Retaining Texas PHA Masons through Education” was the theme of the 19th Masonic District Master Mason Workshop held at the Masonic Temple, Oct. 19.

More than 50 members of the District representing San Antonio Lodge No. 1, Beacon Light Lodge No. 50, John T. Maxey Lodge No. 74, Star Tom Lodge No. 100, Blue Bonnet Lodge No. 192, George Washington Carver Lodge No. 255, and Noble Star Lodge No. 277, to include members of J. Washington Lodge No. 191 of District 23, registered for the workshop which was led by Grand Lecturer Ivory Johnson Jr. (622). Accompanying G.L.

Johnson was District 14 Lecturer, District Deputy Grand Master-Emeritus Ronnie Jones (622) and District 24 Lecturer, Worshipful Master Johnny Perez (620).

Prior to the start of the workshop, the Brothers were treated to refreshments, after which D.D.G.M. Grady Peavy welcomed the Brothers, then G.L. Johnson spoke about leadership and on the duties of the Grand Lecturer.

“The duties of the Grand Lecturer are to deliver orations on public occasions when ordered by the Grand Master. To visit all Lodges in the jurisdiction when requested. To exemplify the ritualistic and unwritten work of the order; and to see that uniformity is observed throughout the jurisdiction,” said G.L. Johnson. “It is important for the Grand Lecturer to visit and conduct workshops because it is his duty to ensure that the intent of Grand Master Wilbert M. Curtis is understood, to include the Grand Lecturer's purpose as laid out in the Grand Lodge Constitution is understood.”

One of the purposes of the workshop was to have all seven Lodges within the District on the same accord. The team reiterated standards and policies set forth in the Grand Lodge Constitution dated June 25, 2011, which should not be altered or modified.

According to G.L. Johnson, the state of Texas, like many others jurisdictions, has had a large influx of Brothers to migrate in from many jurisdictions. Although much of the teachings are the same, many jurisdictions do business ritualistically and ceremonially different than Texas. This is not incorrect as each jurisdiction is sovereign within itself. As these Brothers demit into Texas, they begin to teach but it may not be the proper way it is done in Texas. It is important that Brothers know that the standards for the opening/ closing/degree work and all public and private ceremonies of the Lodge is set by Nizzardini's ritual or the Texas Monitor, anything that is unwritten or unclear is determined by the Grand Lecturer and ONLY to be overruled by the Grand Master."

Following the Grand Lecturer was District 19 Lecturer, P.M. Rev. Willie Calvin Jr. (277) who, with assistance from two of his Lodge members, delivered a lecture on Ecclesiastics 12.

D.D.G.M.-E. Jones, who addi-

D.D.G.M.-E. Ronnie Jones

tionally serves as the Deputy Grand Marshal, provided instruction on the situation of Lodge furniture, procedures for opening and closing ceremonies, and the "Texas Way" of giving the Due Guards and Signs of the three degrees. He also provided a demonstration on how the Deacons and Stewards should hold their staffs and when and how to salute.

G.L. Johnson stressed special emphasis regarding private/public grand honors and the conduct of graveside services.

"The graveside service is where the Last Rites of a Brother are given. It is the final respect given unto him," said G.L. Johnson.

Instruction on balloting was giving by W.M. Perez to include demits into and from a Lodge within the same jurisdiction and from without. Additional instruction was provided on the procedures for healing an unrecognized/bogus/clandestine Mason.

D.D.G.M.-E. Jones spoke on elections and that newly Raised Master Masons should show proficiency no later than 60 days after their 3rd Degree Ceremony. Additionally he spoke about the 14 Prerogatives of the Worshipful Master.

The last period of instruction was given by G.L. Johnson who provided the purposes of Grand Lodge Committees.

D.D.G.M. Peavy thanked G.L. Johnson, D.D.G.M.-E. Jones and W.M. Perez for traveling to San Antonio to provide instruction and welcomed them back to the District anytime.

D.D.G.M.-E. Jones said it was a pleasure for him and W.M. Perez to accompany G.L. Johnson.

In addition to his duties as District Lecturer, D.D.G.M.-E. Jones is responsible for all ceremonial work of the Grand Lodge. He said the G.L. Johnson felt that he and W.M.

Perez possessed the knowledge and skill sets which would benefit the workshop.

G.L. Johnson gave special thanks D.D.G.M.-E Jones and W.M. Perez for traveling and assisting him with the workshop.

This was D.D.G.M.-E. Jones and G.L. Johnson's third trip to District 19 within a two-month period due to the District's responsibility of conducting opening/closing ceremonies to include the Third Degree Ceremony during the Mid-Winter

W.M. Johnny Perez

Special Session to be held at the Grand Lodge, Nov. 8 at 6 p.m.

Asked why it was so important that the District Degree Team perform well, D.D.G.M.-E. Jones said, "We as Master Masons owe it to the Fellow Crafts, our Grand Lodge and ourselves to give the best degree possible. After all, those Fellow Crafts are looking forward to being Raised at the Grand Lodge. I would encourage each and every Lodge to rehearse and conduct good degree work."

D.D.G.M.-E. Jones provides oversight of degree practice in preparation for the mass Raising to be held during Mid-Winter Session.

San Antonio No. 1 helps spread Continued Hope by volunteering at Haven for Hope

P.M. Edward Jones (1)

SAN ANTONIO - Members of San Antonio No. 1, along with volunteers from USAA and the Food Bank of San Antonio, volunteered to provide meals for residents of the city's Haven for Hope, Aug. 3.

Senior Warden Damen Sims and Junior Deacon Michael Coates felt this was a worthy cause for the Lodge to be involved with. Lodge members, along with Sister Velma Tamez of Cubie Horton Chapter No. 14 (O.E.S.) and other volunteers filled snack bags with healthy food for distribution. Once all the bags were completed, volunteers took to the serving line for the lunch rush.

Feeding and housing hundreds daily is the mission of the center. "Hope is what we provide among other amenities", said one employee.

The employee further expressed that some of the people who enter the center feel that they are at the end of their "rope" and Haven for Hope is there to assist with trying to re-establish these individuals in a society that might have them feeling lost.

Haven for Hope describes its purpose when it is offered, "Haven for Hope is a place of hope and new beginnings for people in Bexar County experiencing homelessness."

According to the Haven for Hope website, there are nearly 3,000 homeless people in the city daily. The most telling statistic of this sad fact is that 31% are families with average age being six years old.

"Haven for Hope is a blessing to the homeless of San Antonio," said Worshipful Master Burrell Parmer. "As part of the Lodge's community service program, we endeavor to spread Charity to those in need."

Haven for Hope sets out to provide shelter and nourishment to as many of these individuals as possible. With volunteers and donations, Haven for Hope has been able to feed hundreds daily.

Masons, Eastern Stars participate in healing souls' 1st Annual Prostate Cancer Awareness Walk

Story and photos by:
G.E. Burrell Parmer (1)

SAN ANTONIO – Prince Hall Masons of San Antonio Lodge No. 1, Star Tom Lodge No. 100 and Sisters of the Order of the Eastern Star arose early on a Saturday morning to show their support against Prostate Cancer during healing souls, inc.'s first Prostate Cancer Awareness Walk held at the Claude W. Black Community Center, Sept. 21.

The event was free to the public, and participants were encouraged to donate funds to assist in providing awareness to a form of cancer which according to American Cancer Society affects 1 out of every 6 men.

Healing souls, inc., whose primary mission is communal wellness, felt the need to address prostate cancer in consideration to one of staff members who is a survivor of this form of cancer.

Past Master Edward Jones, chief operations officer for healing souls, was diagnosed in his early 30's and advocates for men to start getting prostate checks before their 40th birthday.

"This Walk is just our first step in getting men to put their pride aside and get checked for prostate cancer," said P.M. Jones. "I simply went in for a routine physical, and shortly thereafter I was told that I had cancer."

Considering P.M. Jones' age, he was taken through a number of tests to prove the diagnoses.

He shared the fact that although prostate cancer is listed as a slow-growing cancer, it is one that if not treated, tends to spread to the patient's bones.

Healing souls shares P.M. Jones' case in hopes that men will realize that prostate cancer is seriously affecting men, but if caught early enough, can be controlled.

P.M. Jones said that most men do not know that a simple blood test can assist in early diagnoses. He suggested by simply asking your physician for a Prostate-Specific Antigen (P.S.A.) Test, it could be the difference between life and death.

Healing souls' founder, Sister Yolanda Potter, gave thanks to sponsors that assisted in the Walk's success.

Sponsors included San Antonio Parks & Recreation, the Claude Black Community Center, the San Antonio Chapter of the NAACP, Tha1Radio, San Antonio Lodge No. 1, Moussa Temple No. 106, Moussa Court No. 119, Britts & Associates, L.L.P., Urban Sophistication L.L.C., Access Dental, Sons of Solomon Motorcycle Club, Tamala Hamilton-Thompson of Noble Group Properties, Top Management Firm, Elmcroft Senior Living Facilities, Copy Center of Stone Oak, and Noble Gentlemen of San Antonio.

Healing souls, inc. plans on making the walk an annual event that will assist in raising awareness to the disease and to hopefully do their part in providing funds to fight this form of cancer.

Noble Star Lodge No. 277 hosts Banquet, honors Newly Raised Masters Masons

Story by W.M. Dr. Ron Kelley (277)

SAN ANTONIO - Noble Star Lodge No. 277 of San Antonio hosted its annual Banquet at the Hilton Hotel, Aug. 3.

The Lodge had not held a banquet in many years, so it was an ambitious goal to bring back this tradition in a large-scale manner in the first year of a new administration.

The full-course-meal banquet was held in honor of the Lodge's 2013 Class. The Lodge Raised five new Master Masons who are outstanding members of the San Antonio community.

The new members included: Brothers Jeffrey Brown, William Ingram, Adrian Rudd, Miguel Elizarraras, and Christopher Black. Bro. Brown is an Air Force intelligence specialist and owner of several businesses. Bro. Ingram is a high-level manager (computer systems) for the University of Texas at San Antonio. Bro. Rudd is the owner of one of the city's premier barbershops and a recognized young, African-American entrepreneur in the city. Bro. Elizarraras works with the leadership of the U.S. Army's Wounded Warrior Project. Bro. Black works in the corporate offices for the Kohl's retail corporation.

The banquet also included many of San Antonio's community leaders and representatives from various organizations including: Blue Bonnet Lodge No. 192, the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, the International United Order of Mechanics, the 100 Black Men of America, Kappa Alpha Psi, Alpha Phi Alpha, Omega Psi Phi, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta, the Talented Tenth Scholars, the San Antonio Independent School District, and the Judson Independent School District.

This event raised thousands of dollars for the Lodge's various charitable endeavors. The banquet was featured in the media by being highlighted in the city's African-American directory as one of the featured events of the year.

Noble Star Lodge was one of the city's only organizations to receive a feature story and photo layout in the 2013 edition of the directory and now it will have its premier annual event also featured in the city's directory.

Noble Star's 2013 Banquet provided a much-deserved spotlight on the many great things that Prince Hall Masonry does in the Alamo City.

Noble Star Lodge No. 277 donates School Supplies

Story and photos by: Lodge Staff

SAN ANTONIO - Noble Star Lodge No. 277 donated a large amount of school supplies to Dorie Miller Academy, Aug. 29.

Dorie Miller Academy is an elementary school in the San Antonio Independent School District located in an economically disadvantaged area of the city.

The truckload of supplies was donated by the Lodge members, primarily Brother Angelo Gordon, the owner of Jamaica Jamaica Restaurant.

The Lodge presented the items to the students during the school day and the story was featured that evening on Fox News.

Worshipful Master Dr. Ron Kelley, who is a former school principal, commended the Brothers for choosing to give back to students in need.

"One of the unique things about this project is that the school supplies were given out after the school year had already begun to ensure that any missing items that weren't purchased in earlier drives were provided," stated W.M. Kelley. "Many times, school supplies are completely forgotten about by charitable organizations once school has begun and students go for many months missing key supplies."

Noble Star Lodge is especially dedicated to educational causes, having several former school administrators and college professors in its active membership.

J. Washington Lodge 191 hosts Family Day BBQ

Story by: Lodge Staff

CIBILO, Texas – More than 50 friends and family members enjoyed the different cuisines and events of J. Washington Lodge No. 191's first Family Day BBQ held at the residence of Worshipful Master Eddie Broadway, July 6.

The food entailed southern dishes, Latin America courses and homemade desserts by certified chef, Brother Mark "The Tower" Williams, the Lodge's Secretary.

Parents enjoyed great music, food and refreshments while the kids played games throughout the day. A bounce castle was also available for extra entertainment for the children.

This event will be held every year to bring the families together and thank them for their hard work in supporting the Brethren of the J. Washington Lodge No. 191.

During our many travels through life and around the world, we view many people, places, things and most of all, wonders that amaze the naked eye. The most astonishing event that a Free and Accepted Mason can witness is the gift of fellowship amongst new Brethren.

Junior Warden Kevin Lindquist enjoyed such an opportunity during his visit to New ERA Lodge No. 107 located in Augusta, Ga.

He was greeting on the five points and invited into the Lodge Hall to witness the Initiation of five candidates. The Lodge's Master, Bro. B. Porter and Senior Deacon Sean Daniels hosted a memorial ceremony that displayed the timeless traditions and rituals that bond the essence of Masonry and its heritage.

If a Brother travels to Augusta and is looking for a great place to fellowship, New ERA Lodge is highly recommended.

On Aug. 31, two Brothers of J. Washington Lodge No. 191 crossed the Burning Sands and were Created into Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in Moussa Temple No. 106. In all, five candidates were accepted amongst the Nobles, thus, building the ranks and support of the mission of the Shrine and its love of its community.

Additionally, the merging of Brothers with other organizations didn't stop there. Consisting primarily of military/ retiree members, the Lodge has four Brothers join the local VFW Post 8315 of Schertz. Planning efforts are in the near future to partner with VFW Post 8315 to maximize joint community service events.

New Light Lodge No. 242 does it Again

Story by: Bro. Michael Acierno (242)

KILLEEN, Texas - With summer vacations over and in preparation for children to head back to school, children and parents often find it difficult to get the needed school supplies when on a tight and or fixed budget, especially with today's trying times. Some families were prepared by the new school year while others needed assistance. This is when members of New Light Lodge No. 242 stepped in by providing children with back packs filled with school supplies, Aug. 17.

Joining forces with the community and the N.A.A.C.P. Back-to-School/Stay-in-School Program, children and parents got relief of the drudgery of just one more preparation before school starts. This was one way to get children excited about going back to school and makes them look forward to getting back to school after a long vacation.

Stay-in-school incentive programs are becoming more popular and are being instituted in more and more areas designated to provide encouragement for positive results.

New Light Lodge has a definite correlation with the community and encourages students to stay in school.

"With this and the assistance they received, the we are sure the children will have more positive thoughts when they go back to school and a better understanding and inspiration to gain knowledge knowing they have the support they need in which to get a good education," stated Worshipful Master Pete Borders.

In addition to donating the school supplies, the Lodge provided refreshment to the children and their parents.

H.H.P. Burrell Parmer (16)

KILLEEN, Texas – The Leadership from the M.E. Prince Hall Grand Chapter Holy Royal Arch Masons of Texas and its subordinate Chapters met at the Marriott Courtyard Hotel for their annual Leadership Symposium, Aug. 10.

The symposium, hosted by Mt. Sinai Chapter No. 42 (Central Region), provided the Companions with more than nine lectures and topics of discussion to include, but not limited to: a Leadership Lecture by Past Conference Grand High Priest Roosevelt Huggins, Building Effective Leaders by District Deputy Grand High Priest Michael Berry, a Leadership Lecture by Comp. T.J. Carson, and a business presentation by the CARD company regarding their Masonic Discount Card called “The Pass”.

The training was facilitated by M.E. Grand High Priest Willie J. Tate who told all in attendance to pay close attention to the lectures

“Leadership teaches us this. To be successful, you must have a program for people to come to,” said G.H.P. Tate. “We’re going to talk a lot about leadership today.”

He posed a question to the attendees of how many were elected because of the work they have done in their respective Chapters; not through gerrymandering or politicking.

“I asked that question because many times we say let the work speak for us. This is within our meetings but in the community who speaks for us,” said G.H.P. Tate. “All I am trying to do is provoke your thoughts about leadership in your community.”

After lunch, additional topics were discussed to include professional development and the recognition of Royal and Select Masters within the Jurisdiction of Texas.

The symposium concluded with a wrap up by G.H.P. Tate and information regarding the 2014 York Rite Weekend to be held in Killeen, Jan. 30 – Feb. 2, 2014. For more information and to register visit www.mephgcoftexas.org.

Texas Council of Assemblies Order of the Golden Circle

"May the Peace of the Lord be always with you."

*Loyal Lady Shirley Henry Gideon
State Grand Loyal Lady Ruler
Texas Council of Assemblies
Order of the Golden Circle*

"There are two ways of spreading Light: to be the candle or the mirror that reflects it."

Greetings:

Texas Council of Assemblies wishes to thank each and every Loyal Lady who celebrated Prince Hall Day by attending church on that Grand Masonic Day.

We will host the United Supreme Council in Houston in 2014. Ladies you will be receiving information concerning committees formed for this grand affair. We have some Ladies who designated their choice and we are forever grateful to them.

Texas was represented at the United Supreme Council held in Greensboro, NC this year. Joining my were the following Ladies: Hazel Scott, Anna Harris-Howell, Debra Edmonds, Francis Smith, Nelda Harper, Barbie Butler, Lynell Curtis, Patricia Connors, Claudine Forbes, Marilyn Forbes, Charmaine Huggins, and Beverly Ware (Lifetime No. 306). We all enjoyed the many activities to include North Carolina A&T Gospel Choir and the Old School Concert with The Manhattans. And of course a moving Sunday Service with a somber Sunday evening Memorial Service. A day of shopping and tour of the HBC's followed.

The Golden Circle Meeting with Sovereign Grand Commander Deary Vaughn was informative with a question and answer time. The Committee of Ladies for the Golden Circle were introduced, as were the Sirs who serve on the Committee for the Golden Circle.

Texas Council of Assemblies has been represented at several occasions in and around the state. Central Texas Assembly No. 306 held a Past Loyal Lady Ruler Luncheon attended by guests and Loyal Ladies. Dal-Worth Assembly No. 31 held their 3rd Annual Golden Affair, where the local Consistory joined the Ladies for the first time, but vowed this would not be their last. We commend their togetherness. We have visited a living facility for senior citizens, participated in the back-to-school book bag program and fed needy families.

Ladies of Texas Council of Assemblies will be participating in the Prince Hall Masonic Family's Christmas Giveaway sponsored by the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas. Donations and gifts are to be brought to Mid-Winter Session in Fort Worth, Nov. 8 – 9, where I will be in attendance.

May the Grace and Mercy of the Lord continue to rain down on us, His children of the Light.

Peace and Unity!

Sons of Solomon Motorcycle Club continues to provide Support to their Community

Story by: Sons of Solomon Motorcycle Club, San Antonio Chapter

SAN ANTONIO - Sons of Solomon Motorcycle Club, San Antonio Chapter continues to support the city and surrounding communities. One of the many activities the club supported was healing souls' 1st Annual Prostate Cancer Awareness Walk held at the Claude W. Black Community Center, Sept. 21.

Prostate Cancer is the second most common cancer among men. African-American men experience a higher rate of prostate cancer than any other ethnicity group. Early detection is the key to fighting prostate cancer. Since the early 1990's, when prostate cancer screenings began in the United States, the mortality rate has dropped significantly.

Recently, the club became a sponsor of a Pop Warner youth football team. The Pop Warner Program exists to use football, cheerleading, dance and a respect for education to develop strong, smart, responsible, healthy young men and women.

Members of the club gave the "Eastside Raiders" experiences that build their appreciation for and understanding of leadership, teamwork, and discipline.

Sons of Solomon showed their support in the city of Cibolo where members provided assistance in the set-up for the Annual Cibolo-Fest.

The Cibolo Fest included fun, food, exhibits, rides and the patterning of runners and walkers. This annual event, which began in 2009, hosted a variety of entertainment for the whole family.

In addition, the club visited Westridge Park First Baptist Church in San Antonio to provide assistance with the church's annual Women's Day Program. Members of the club served as ushers.

The Sons of Solomon Motorcycle Club of San Antonio strives to use the tenants of Prince Hall Freemasonry to cement a bond with the local community with continuous involvement through charitable works.

Free & Accepted Masons of St. John Lodge No. 12

CHAPPELL HILL, Texas - An enduring community must have moral strength and vision, and a fabric of caring and benevolence. The church was essential to families in its roles of teaching faith and morals and forming benevolent societies.

St. John Lodge No. 12 is one such society. As an important symbol for Chappell Hill, it remains a treasured landmark. It served to create harmony with a spirit of Brotherhood and earned the respect of non-African Americans because they shared the same unique set of values.

Within the black community the Lodge fostered strong values of mutual responsibilities that contributed significantly to the social and educational fabric of the community.

This once two-story building provided opportunities for various groups to meet and fellowship.

Lessons-learned here echoed the teachings from home, school and church on the importance of building good relationships, basic integrity, and strong leadership skills.

The groups using the facility included: The M.L. Lyons Palace No.

223, the Free & Accepted Masons, the Heroines of Jericho of Beacon Light Court No. 30 and the Order of the Eastern Star.

(M.W. Henderson D. Winn, the 12th Grand Master of The Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Texas (1916-1925) was a member of St. John Lodge No. 12.)

Editor visits Tri-District Meeting in Louisiana

Story by: G.E. Burrell Parmer (1)

D.D.G.M. at Large Michael Maffett,
M.W.P.H.G.L. of La.

DELHI, La. – "Visiting is undoubtedly a central pillar of Freemasonry. At the simplest level, it is the opportunity to share comradship, to enjoy each other's company, and as we move from 'labour to refreshment' to enjoy the society of the Festive Board. But of course, visiting another Lodge (or jurisdiction) offers much more than this, it provides opportunities to exchange ideas, to achieve a better understanding of the ceremony, and to make a fuller, more complete sense of the ritual," Bro. J.J.P. Goody, United Grand Lodge of England.

I had the pleasure of being invited to a Tri-District Meeting held at New Delhi Lodge No. 184 within the Jurisdiction of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Louisiana, Oct. 26.

This was an historic occasion as District Deputy Grand Master Bishop Rodney McFarland held his first Tri-District Meeting after been appointed the Deputy for Districts 11, 12 and 13 which encompasses much of Northeast Louisiana.

According to D.D.G.M. McFarland, this is the first time within the history of the Grand Lodge that a District Deputy has been given the responsibility for three Districts simultaneously.

A native of Monroe, La., this was my first time visiting a Masonic Body within the state and it was a pleasure to witness D.D.G.M. McFarland at work.

It was also a pleasure to see two of my first cousins, Brothers David Rogers and Nathaniel Stanley, in attendance from Pride of Mer Rouge Lodge No. 190. It was also a unique pleasure to meet two Brothers who attended the meeting who were 99 and 94 years old.

Towards the end of the meeting, D.D.G.M. McFarland delivered an outstanding lecture on the Middle Chamber which drew rounds of applause from the Brethren.

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for Brethren to dwell together in Unity...

I wish thank Bro. Dennis Holman, a good, humble Brother and D.D.G.M. McFarland for allowing myself, Past Masters Tony Jordan and Shannon Gregory for the opportunity to visit and fellowship with them and their members.

Service Members should start Saving Early for Retirement

Story by: Terri Moon Cronk
American Forces Press Service

WASHINGTON (Oct. 15, 2013) - It's never too soon to start saving for retirement, Barbara Thompson, the director of the Defense Department's office of family policy/children and youth advised service members today.

Enlistees as young as 18 might not be thinking about saving for retirement or the importance of their Thrift Savings Plan, but that's when they should, because retirement creeps up quickly, Thompson said.

"The vast majority of service members don't go the full 20 years for military retirement, so they need to, from the very beginning, think about their futures," she said. "When [service members] get out of the military, they will have something to show in a retirement plan they've had all along while serving."

Sometimes "you have to start small, because that's what you can afford, but the goal is to build up, so you're saving more and more every year," Thompson said.

The Thrift Savings Plan, Thompson said, offers two types of approaches: one that is tax-deferred until age 59-and-a-half when taxes on that money will be paid; and the Roth Thrift Savings Plan, in which taxes are paid up front.

"It's an individual decision based on [service members'] circumstances, and I would highly suggest they utilize the financial resources that DOD provides," Thompson said.

Saving for retirement is not only about financial readiness, it's also critical for service members' financial well-being, she said. And DOD offers numerous resources to help with retirement account guidance, Thompson added. Military OneSource has financial counselors who are available by phone, online or in person, she said. Its online calculations also show service members how their savings will develop over time.

Military installations offer personal financial managers at base family centers, Thompson added. The counselors are certified in financial counseling and can help families decide which of the two plans best meet their needs. Banks and credit unions also offer financial education, and the Thrift Savings Plan website offers a wealth of information as well, Thompson said.

Regardless of the Thrift Savings Plan service members and families choose, they should periodically revisit their retirement accounts and stay informed by researching financial matters, Thompson said.

"It's not now, it's the future you need to be thinking of," she said. "We're seeing a trend in the United States [in which] people are reaching retirement age and they're realizing they may not have enough [money] as they get into their 80s and 90s. You want to make sure all those years are covered so you don't become a burden to your children or to society."
